

Local and Global: Street papers acting for positive social change

INVITATION

To the Public Forum of The 11th International Street Paper Conference Montreal

The 11th International Street Paper Conference is hosting a public forum titled: A Picture of Poverty or Poverty in Pictures?

L'itinéraire cordially invites you to the forum Thursday, June 8th at 7pm in the Alfred-Laliberté room (Judith-Jasmine Pavillion, local JM400) at the University of Quebec in Montreal (UQAM) at 405 East Ste-Catherine street. This forum will analyze the role of the media and public institutions in the representation of poverty as well as ways to galvanize solidarities in the community.

Join host and journalist Anne-Marie Dussault as she introduces special guests sharing concern for the (mis)representation of poverty in traditional media. Guests will include Shirley Roy, co-director of the Research Centre on poverty, homelessness and social exclusion at UQAM, Mel Young, President of the International Network of Street Papers (INSP), Alain Gravel, President of the Professional Federation of Quebec Journalists and Walter Moser, Canada Research Chair in Literary and Cultural Transfers, University of Ottawa.

We look forward to seeing you!
